Letters received from brother officers state that Second-Lieutenant Kenneth Mallorie Priestman, R.E., elder son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Priestman, Hollin Grange, Ilkley, whose death in action, as already reported, occurred on August 31, at the age of 25, was out on reconnaissance work with his major at the time. A large fragment of shell hit Lieutenant Priestman in the spine, and he died immediately. The major was badly hit, as was another officer of the Pioneers. Lieutenant Priestman was killed in the advanced front line, and great difficulty was experienced in bringing his body in, as he had to be carried over a shell-swept zone, over the top, in full view of the enemy. He was buried in a cemetery, the chaplain conducting the service and men of Lieutenant Priestman's section acting as bearers. A cross is being erected to mark the grave. One of the writers says: "Your son was a particular friend of mine, and had always shown the acme of courage in action, clear-headed, and a good grasp of the situation in very awkward corners. We have lost a well-beloved comrade, and one of the best officers we ever had."
